What’s Happening @ Your Library

A big thank you to the Friends of the Shelby Area District Library for an amazing book sale! Thanks to those who helped with set-up, running the sale, and clean up afterwards. Also thanks to the buyers who visited and purchased. It was a huge success because of YOU!

Check out our schedule of events in October on the next page. Registration begins September 12. DIY workshops, storytimes, canvas painting—all Fall/Halloween inspired. We will end the month with trick or treating at the library from 5-7pm.

Book Sale Results, Fall Plant Sale, Tree Celebration

For those of you who participated in our Annual Good Buy Book Sale, you know it was a great success. Because of your donations of books, and purchases by so many of you, we raised over $1,300.00 to support library needs. Of course, none of this would have happened without all of the help we received from so many of you. For that help, the Friends thank you. Special thanks to tent setters, Gordon and Charles, help scheduling by Val Lau, sort decisions and supervision by Mary Ellen Heyde, and sale organization by Mary Ellen and Val. Thanks also to Janet Schultz for being our cashier. And a very special thank you to Nan and Steve Gorbics. They were a big help in running our first Friday preview early bird sale, and to MaryAnn Carey for designing and preparing our Gift Book Baskets. These were a huge success, bringing in over $250.00 of our total sale results.

After reviewing our fall plant sale results from last year, we’ve decided to not hold this event again this year.

As I type this document, I’m thinking how fast the summer seems to have gone by. At our September meeting, we’ll begin the planning for our annual Celebration of the Trees. Cindy McKinnon, our chair of this event, will attend our meeting to review assignments for our Friends group. Emilee Best will again be running our Christmas Bazaar. This has proven to be a great success, so we’ll be looking again for your donations of gently used Christmas items to sell at this sale.

As you know, the Friends have a small storage area in the library. We’ll be purchasing shelving to make more efficient use of this space.

When you’re at the library, check out the fresh paint job on the exterior. It is a rich tan color, and the stucco has been repaired. It looks really terrific.

A reminder that our next meeting will be held on Wednesday September 14.

That’s all for now. Have a good Labor Day weekend and I’ll see you in September.
